GWG and the DISRonline

What is the DISR

How to access the GWG on DISRonline

http://www.gwg.nga.mil

DISR

- Provides DoD systems with the basis for seamless interoperability
- The DISR is mandated for the management, development, and acquisition of new or improved IT systems throughout DoD
- Standards and guidelines in the DISR are stable, technically mature, and publicly available

DISRonline

The online repository of information related to DoD IT and NSS standards

Who can have access:

- DISRonline is limited to those who are directly involved in the development or support of projects, programs, or systems that make use of the DoD IT Standards Registry (DISR).

- Government contractors are required to provide their current contract number and identify a military or government point of contact (POC) that can verify their justification for DISRonline access.

DISRonline

DISRonline contains:

- A registry of DISR - prescribed standards and standards profiles
- Non-mandated reference information provided for use by the acquisition community such as:
  - Emerging standards
  - Inactive/retired standards
  - Mission Area and Domain Standards profiles
  - Technology standards profiles
  - Program System Profiles (TV-1)
  - Interfaces to analysis tools and related repositories (e.g. DARS, JCPAT-E)
  - Software to assist in building standards profiles
